

25 Mar 11

“polluted” will make World Premiere at the Local Focus 4 Film Festival

From the Dragons Den to the world premiere of “polluted” – Dik Lee leads Phylum MVM to the Local Focus 4 Film Festival, the first of many festival appearances up and coming in the near future.

“polluted” stars Dik Lee, featured on CBC’s Dragons Den & front man from the Screaming Beavers® - 2 time nominee at the Niagara Music Awards (www.diklee.com)

– and –

Leonard Mario Zgrablić, graduate of Drama at the University of Waterloo, appearance in: The Real MASH - Storyline Entertainment for History Television & star of: I Want To Meet My Water Buffalo – rattailfilms (www.volant.ca/lmz)

“polluted” was inspired by a true story and grapples around intense social, global, political and environmental issues.

Synopsis

The World is in trouble... As the aliens conspire to ... ‘blah, blah, blah ... something the earth’ ... Join Johnny and Josepie in their adventurous trip of psychological and philosophical mayhem. As our dynamic duo battle (talk) their way through a psychological twister their experiences lead to something that one might consider is the beginning to the end of the human race!?! – You decide!?! Living up to the title of the film – “polluted” – was shot using one Kodak DC 3400 still frame camera! YES that’s right thousands of photographs!!! “polluted” is output in an anamorphic D4 widescreen format with an aspect ratio of: 2.67:1

Leonard Mario Zgrablić – “I’m honoured to be a part of this project. “polluted” proves that experimental films can also be entertaining!”

Dik Lee – “Our group is completely honored to have the world premiere of “polluted” at the Local Focus 4 Film Festival and it’s just the start of what we are about to unravel with the Phylum® trademark.”

The Local Focus 4 Film Festival will be held on April 17-23, 2011 at the Multicultural Centre in Kitchener, Ontario. More information and festival updates can be found at: www.phylummvm.com/polluted

For interview and media bookings call the office at: 905-397-8713 or email: amy@phylummvm.com

LEONARD
MARIO
ZGRABLIC

DIK
LEE

polluted

The World is in trouble... As the aliens conspire to ... 'blah, blah, blah ... something the earth' ... Join Johnny and Josepie in their adventurous trip of psychological and philosophical mayhem. As our dynamic duo battle (talk) their way through a psychological twister their experiences lead to something that one might consider is the beginning to the end of the human race!? – You decide!?! Living up to the title of the film – “polluted” – was shot using one Kodak DC 3400 still frame camera! YES that's right thousands of photographs!!! “polluted” is output in an anamorphic D4 widescreen format with an aspect ratio of: 2.67:1

www.phylummvm.com

All content ©2010, 2011
PHYLUM
MVM
www.phylummvm.com

